ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1860.

After the opening of the General Assembly at Rochester, N. Y., the following Standing Committee on the Board of Publication was announced by the Moderator, viz.—Rev. John M. Krebs, D. D., Rev. Stephen Yerkes, D. D., Rev. S. T. Wells, and Rev. John H. Rice. Ruling Elders, S. M. Bartlett, M. D., Elias Dye, and Silas H. Thompson.

On Friday morning May 18, according to an order of the day, the Annual Report was presented by the Corresponding Secretary, Rev. William E. Schenck, D. D., and referred by the Assembly to the above Committee.

On Thursday morning May 24, the Standing Committee brought in their report. By invitation of the Assembly, the Corresponding Secretary addressed the body in regard to the operations of the Board. After a discussion in reference to the frequency with which the Sabbath-school Visitor should be published, the report was unanimously adopted without amendment, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Publication, respectfully report:

That they have carefully examined the Report of the Board, with a variety of other papers submitted to their inspection, and they now beg leave to offer the following resolutions for the consideration of the Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly recognize in its Board of Publication an agency of incalculable importance for aiding in the spread of divine truth, and rejoices to learn that it has, during the last year, published over one million copies, being the largest number by 141,000 copies, ever issued in any year of the Board's existence, and equal to nearly one-eighth of the entire number issued by the Board during its whole history.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly hereby expresses its approbation of the Board's continuing to make grants of books to needy Sabbath-schools, ministers and feeble churches, and to individuals for gratuitous distribution, and it would earnestly recommend the special Distribution Fund of the Board, from which these grants are made, to the consideration and the contributions of the churches and of pious individuals; and it especially recommends to Sabbath-schools to aid the Board in this work of making grants of Sabbath-school books and libraries to mission and other needy schools.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly is gratified to learn that, in accordance with its former recommendations, the Board is actively engaged in publishing books of a highly scriptural character for juvenile reading and for Sabbath-school libraries, and the Assembly reiterates its former recommendation to Sabbath-schools to give the preference, in procuring libraries, to the books of our own Board.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly expresses its gratification with the activity and energy with which the work of Colportage has been prosecuted by the Board, in increasing the number of its Colporteurs in the field during the past year more than twenty-five per cent., and in accomplishing by these Colporteurs a larger amount of work than in any former year of the Board's existence—thus carrying, by their books and tracts, and by their conversation, and the prayers of these devoted and self-denying labourers, the words of eternal life to vast numbers of our fellow-men, in every part of this great country, and the British Provinces.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly approves of the employment by the Board of a supervisory class of Colporteurs, or District Superintendents, as likely to give still farther activity and extension to this important work of Colportage.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly approves of the very decided improvements recently made by the Board in the Sabbath-school Visitor, and it does hereby earnestly recommend that paper to all our churches and Sunday-schools.

Resolved, 7. That whilst the Board and its officers have, at all times, cheerfully recognized the right of the members of the Assembly to make inquiries into its operations and its management, and readily throws open its affairs to the inspection of all persons who have the right, as individuals, to demand it, it has—in all times past—given, and now gives, such replies as have been in a high degree satisfactory; and the Assembly rejoices in the evidence afforded of energy, efficiency, and progress, with all reasonable economy, which has been manifested by the Board in every department of the great work entrusted to its hands.

The annual sermon on behalf of the Board was preached in St. Peter's Presbyterian church in Rochester on Thursday evening May 24, by Rev. Prof. S. J. Wilson of the Western Theological Seminary, on the text, Isaiah xliii. 3, "He shall bring forth judgment unto truth."

The Assembly afterwards adopted a resolution to discontinue the practice of appointing annual preachers for the Boards.

FORM OF A DEVISE OR BEQUEST TO THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

To the Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, and to their successors and assigns, I give and bequeath the sum of ; (or, I devise a certain messuage and tract of land, &c.,) to be held by the said Trustees and their successors for ever, to and for the uses, and under the direction of the said Board of Publication, according to the provisions of their charter.

TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT

BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

WITH the month of February closed another year of the labours of the Board. It is, therefore, both its duty and its privilege again to present a summing up of its annual labours to the General Assembly. And we may rejoice that through the good hand of our God upon us, we are able to make mention of many things which may well be reckoned as causes for gratitude to the Great Head of the Church, and as sources of hope and inspiration for the future. Two valued members of the Board, Rev. Alexander Macklin, D. D., and Hon. Joel Jones, LL.D., the latter of whom had for more than twenty years been a highly useful member of its Executive Committee, have within the year been removed by death. With these exceptions, the members and officers have been graciously preserved, and their counsels marked by the most fraternal and uninterrupted harmony.

The number of new books and tracts this year added to the Board's valuable catalogue, is larger than the addition before made in any single year. Its sales are largely in advance of those made in the preceding year. The number of colporteurs in the field has been increased over one-fourth. The receipts for colportage are also in advance of any previous year; while the work done by the colporteurs has been larger in the aggregate, and, as we fully believe, better done than in any former year of the Board's history.

We proceed to exhibit first what has been accomplished in the

This exhibits the largest number of new books and tracts ever issued in one year, as well as the largest aggregate of publications by 141,000 copies.

The following is a list of the new publications of the year:

NEW BOOKS.

Catalogue No.

537. Lame Letty; or, Bear ye one another's Burdens. By the author of "Annandale," "Ella Clinton," &c. 18mo. pp. 161. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

Youthful readers have pronounced this neat volume "beautiful" and "excellent." This is a sufficient testimony to its attractiveness, for little folks themselves know best what suits their taste. Older readers will add an undoubting testimony to the excellence, importance, and scripturalness of the lessons it inculcates.

539. The Profits of Godliness. By the author of "Scenes in Chusan," "Learn to say No," &c., &c. 18mo. pp. 114. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

This excellent writer, now become so widely and so favourably known to the readers of the Board's books, in this little work attempts to answer the important practical question, "Of what use is religion?" In a number of short chapters he shows his readers that "Godliness is profitable for all things, and has the promise both of the life that now is, and of that which is to come."

540. John F. Oberlin, Pastor of the Ban de la Roche. 18mo. pp. 72. Price 15 cents. 2000 copies.

A brief and well written memoir of this humble yet eminent servant of God. Its perusal is well suited to move the heart, and to lead to a heartier consecration to God's service.

541. The History and Habits of Animals; with special reference to the animals of the North American continent, and those mentioned in the Scriptures. By Peter Walker. Square, 12mo. pp. 320, with upwards of one hundred illustrations. Price 95 and $1. 2000 copies.

This is a well planned and well executed effort to interest our juvenile friends in the animal kingdom. The author has succeeded well in his endeavour. By judicious and frequent narratives and facts drawn from naturalists, travellers, and others, he has added greatly to the interest and value of the volume. No more delightful book could be selected as a present to a young friend having any taste for natural history. Its pictures of animals are numerous and excellent.

542. A Physician's Counsels to his Professional Brethren. By a practising Physician. 18mo. pp. 103. Price 15 and 20 cents. 2000 copies.

Here is something for our brethren of the medical profession. It is written by a physician, and for physicians. The author says in his preface that it has been prepared with the humble desire of "drawing the attention of medical men to their religious privileges and responsibilities on the one hand, and the temptations which assail them on the other." The design is well carried out, and the author has made a most instructive and agreeable book. Its thoughts are sound and good, its style clear and fresh.

543. The Better Land, a book for the aged. By the Rev. James Smith, author of "Welcome to Jesus," "Daily Bible Readings," &c. 18mo. pp. 95. Price 15 and 20 cents. 2000 copies.

Here is a book for the aged—a book of short meditations on appropriate scripture truths—a book full of sweet, comforting, and cheering thoughts. Let the aged have it and read it, and they will learn from it how very near and how very good is "The Better Land" of which it tells.

544. Infidelity Against Itself. By the Rev. B. B. Hotchkin. Written for the Board of Publication. 18mo. pp. 100. Price 15 and 20 cents. 2000 copies.

It contains many forcible and striking thoughts, and is well fitted to increase our contempt for infidelity, as well as our detestation of it. The book is seasonable, and ought to have a wide circulation in every community where any infidelity is to be found.

545. Anna, the Leech Vender, a narrative of filial love. By O. Glaubrecht. From the German, by Mrs. Clarke. 18mo. pp. 142. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

A most interesting exhibition is here offered, as the title-page indicates, of filial love. It can hardly fail to make most salutary impressions on the mind of every youthful reader, and lead to a more thorough and practical understanding of the fifth commandment.

546. The Child 100 Years Old. By the author of "Learn to say No," "Scenes in Chusan," &c. 18mo. pp. 120. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

The author of this little book has gained an enviable distinction among the friends of the children of our Church, by the varied productions of his pen—all equally interesting and instructive. The importance of early religion is illustrated and enforced in this volume, by a number of sketches from real life among the old as well as the young.

547. May I Believe? or, the Warrant of Faith. By the Rev. Alfred Hamilton, D. D. 138 pp. 18mo. Price 20 and 25 cents. 1000 copies.

Strange that such a question should ever be asked by any one who reads the Bible! But such is the perversity and infirmity of our fallen nature that many sincere and anxious inquirers after salvation are tempted to doubt. To relieve these doubts, and direct inquirers into the path of peace, is the object of this valuable volume.

548—553. Charlie Barton, Gentle John, The Doomed City, The Two Prisoners, The Barbary Doves, Emily Somerville. 64 pp. each. Price 10 and 15 cents. 2000 copies each.

These are a valuable addition to the Sabbath-school library, especially for the younger pupils.

554. Who is my Neighbour? or, the Two Great Commandments. By the author of "Little Bob True," &c. 18mo. pp. 216. Price 25 and 30 cents. 2000 copies.

An admirable little volume, commending practical benevolence by Christian example.

555. The Missionary Box. 18mo. pp. 136. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

Designed to cherish a spirit of liberality towards the Missionary cause, especially in the destitute regions of our own land.

556. Julia's Visit to the Asylum. By Mrs. Sarah S. T. Wallace, author of "Anna Lee," &c. 18mo. pp. 41. Price 15 cents. 2000 copies.

An interesting story, especially inculcating the importance of making a right use of time.

557. Poor Henry; or, The Pilgrim Hut of Weisenstein. Translated from the German of Dr. Barth. 18mo. pp. 129. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

A simple, touching story of an humble German boy, showing the loveliness of early piety, and the tenderness of God's providence towards his suffering "little ones."

558. Arthur Singleton; or, What Lack I Yet? By the author of "Broken Cisterns." 18mo. pp. 249. Price 30 and 35 cents. 2000 copies.

A narrative replete with Christian truth and pious sentiment, showing that morality and amiability are not sufficient without real conversion to God.

559. Agatha; or, One Thing I Do. By the author of "Early and Latter Rain." 18mo. pp. 195. Price 25 and 30 cents. 2000 copies.

The doctrine of this book is that humble submission to the divine wil and a self-denying devotion to the happiness of others, are the finest mode of a Christian life.

560. A Basket of Chips for the Little Ones. By Luola. 18mo. pp. 237. Price 30 and 35 cents. 2000 copies.

A volume of short and simple narratives, which cannot fail to interest youthful readers.

561. Ways and Ends; or, The Two Farms at Lynthorpe. 18mo. pp. 144. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

A volume full of useful hints touching the discipline and training of children, and the management of the household.

562. The Believer's Daily Treasure; or, Texts of Scripture, arranged for every day of the Year. 64mo. pp. 192. Gilt. Price 25 cents. 2000 copies.

For those who are in the habit of using a little volume of this sort as a daily reminder of sacred truth, this will be found indeed a "Treasure." It contains not only a text, but also a select verse or two of a hymn for every day.

566. The Poor Orphan's Legacy; being a short collection of Godly Counsels and Exhortations to a Young, Rising Generation. Primarily designed by the author for his own Children, but published that others may also reap benefit from them. 18mo. pp. 67. Price 15 cents. 2000 copies.

Every parent would do well to put this instructive volume into the hands of his children. It is a complete manual of Christian morals.

567. The Pastoral Office, embracing Experiences and Observations from a Pastorate of Forty Years. By the Rev. Reuben Smith. 18mo. pp. 105. Price 15 and 20 cents. 2000 copies.

The title of this book sufficiently explains its object, and the nature of its contents. Ministers and candidates for the ministry may gather many valuable hints from its pages.

568. Grace and Glory, or the Young Convert Instructed in the Doctrines of Grace. Being a sequel to "The Gospel Fountain." By the Rev. James Wood, D. D. 18mo. pp. 317. Price 40 and 45 cents. 1000 copies.

No one is more competent to instruct the youth of our Church on these grand themes of grace, than the venerated and beloved author of "Old and New Theology." He has now furnished the Board with three valuable volumes for its Sabbath-school library, the two former being "The Best Lesson," and "The Gospel Fountain." This work is dedicated by its author to the youth of the Presbyterian Church, and any among them who may read it, will receive most valuable religious instruction from it. The work may be read with profit by those who are not young, although it is specially designed and eminently fitted to interest and instruct the youth.

569. Family Religion, or the Domestic Relations as regulated by Christian Principles. By the Rev. B. M. Smith, Professor in Union Theological Seminary, Virginia. A Prize Essay. 12mo. pp. 210. Price 60 cents. 2000 copies.

This treatise was called forth by the liberal offer of a prize of two hundred dollars, made by a gentleman in one of our Southern States, for the best work upon the subject herein treated. The Board of Publication was requested to publish the proposals, receive manuscripts, and decide upon the comparative merits of those presented. Sixteen manuscripts of different degrees of merit were presented, and to this one of Dr. Smith the prize was unanimously adjudged.

The greatness and importance of the topics discussed in it can hardly be adequately estimated. The duties connected with the family relations lie at the foundation of all other duties existing between man and his fellow-man. As they are esteemed and performed, so will society, civil government, and the church be pure, efficient, and beneficent. The writer of this Essay is a clear and vigorous thinker, and has treated his great subject with extraordinary judgment, vigour, and freshness. His book will be extensively read, and wherever read cannot fail to be productive of great good.

570. The Christian Home, or, Religion in the Family. By the Rev. Joseph A. Collier, of Kingston, New York. Author of "The Right Way." (A Prize Essay.) 12mo. pp. 198. Price 60 cents. 1000 copies.

This work was likewise called forth by the offer of the prize above referred to. Although that prize was adjudged to Rev. Dr. Smith, yet so great were the merits of Rev. Mr. Collier's work also believed by the Board to be, that it adjudged to him a second prize of one hundred and seventy-five dollars, and resolved to publish his treatise also. The method of this work differs largely from that of Dr. Smith, while yet the same great principles are urged in a strong and vigorous manner. While there are some points of similarity in the two works, they yet differ so widely in others that the reading of the one will not diminish, but rather increase the interest with which the other may be read. We commend them both very earnestly to all heads of families especially, and ask for them an extensive circulation in every portion of the Church.

571. Esther and her Times, in a series of Lectures on the Book of Esther. By the Rev. John M. Lowrie, of Fort Wayne, Indiana. 12mo. pp. 276. Price 55 cents. 1000 copies.

This neat little volume is evidently the fruit of careful study, and no inconsiderable general learning. The discussion is conducted in a clear, interesting, and most instructive manner. The book of Esther has not been so generally studied, or at least so much written upon, as most other portions of the word of God. The volume is full of precious truth, and cannot fail to benefit both the mind and heart of every prayerful reader.

572. Benoni; or, the Triumph of Christianity over Judaism. By the Rev. Dr. Barth, author of "Poor Henry," &c. From the German. 18mo. pp. 127. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

This little volume contains a striking narrative of a Jewish youth, who, through a series of strange adventures and deliverances was brought finally to know and embrace the gospel. It contains much interesting information respecting Jewish superstitions, and will be read with interest by multitudes of youth.

573. Annie Leslie; or, the Little Orphan. 18mo. pp. 107. Price 15 and 20 cents. 2000 copies.

This is a delightful little volume for juvenile readers. The narrative is deeply affecting, and many important lessons of a religious kind are wisely and forcibly presented.

574. Rosalie's Lessons. By Mrs. Sarah S. T. Wallace. 18mo. pp. 132. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

The narrative of this little volume is interesting and highly instructive, while the style is captivating.

575. A Cluster of Fruits from the Tree of Heavenly Wisdom. Compiled for the Board of Publication. By Annie Brooks. 18mo. pp. 285. Price 30 and 35 cents. 2000 copies.

A charming compilation of short and very instructive religious tales, which cannot fail to be welcomed by our youthful readers.

576. Why was I Left? or, He Hath Done all Things Well. By Mary McCalla, author of "Life among the Children," "Twin Sisters," &c. Square 16mo. pp. 114. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

This is a very sweet and impressive story. Its great lesson is that every one, however apparently solitary and desolate his lot, may yet do a work for God and his generation. The author of this volume knows well how to write so as to interest the young and to do good. Her pen should not be suffered to lie idle.

577. The Peaks of Otter; a Monograph of the Religious Experience of a Young Man. 18mo. pp. 36. Price 10 cents. 2000 copies.

A striking exhibition of one of the manifold and wonderful ways in which God leads sinners to salvation. To a large class of educated, but skeptical, young men, this tract might convey an invaluable lesson.

578. Ellen; or, Submission in Affliction. 18mo. pp. 36. Price 10 cents. 2000 copies.

The title sufficiently indicates the character of this little work. It will convey at the same time example and comfort to many a sufferer.

579. Ella Graham; or, Great Effects from Small Causes. By Abby Eldredge. 18mo. pp. 138. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

This little volume exhibits in a delightful and perfectly natural way the benefits and blessings flowing to ungodly families from an attendance upon Sabbath-school instruction.

580. Twyman Hogue; or, Early Piety Illustrated. A Biographical Sketch by W. W. Hill, D. D. With an Introduction by L. W. Green, D. D., President of Centre College. Prepared for the Presbyterian Board of Publication. 18mo. pp. 186. Price 25 and 30 cents. 2000 copies.

This narrative is a new illustration of the old saying that "truth is stranger than fiction." Were not the statements of this volume respecting the remarkable boy, whose brief life it commemorates, verified by abundant and unquestionable testimony, it would appear to be an exaggerated product of the imagination. As it is, however, we must receive the work as affording new evidence of God's sovereign power and wonder-working grace. Twyman Hogue was a boy of rare and powerful intellect, which was encased in a feeble body. His piety was no less eminent and impressive. Dr. Hill has embalmed his memory in a narrative of sweet, touching, and classical simplicity, and Dr. Green has prefixed an eloquent introduction. We have no doubt the book will be extensively read, and wherever read will be useful.

581. Holidays, and the Reasons why they are Observed. 18mo. pp. 106. Price 15 and 20 cents. 1000 copies.

The "Holidays" are Christmas and New Year, St. Patrick's Day, Fourth of July, St. Bartholomew's Day, and Thanksgiving Day. These are made the subjects of pleasant and profitable conversations between a mother and her children. There is no tinge of superstition in the volume.

582. The Titles of Our Lord, adopted by Himself in the New Testament. By J. Montague Randall, Vicar of Langham, Suffolk. 12mo. pp. 249. Price 50 cents. 1000 copies.

This volume will carry instruction to many a mind, and comfort to many a heart. It is full of Jesus from beginning to end, and speaks of him in that tender, loving, trustful tone, which shows that the Redeemer was a living reality to the author's mind.

The work derives additional interest from a statement in the preface, that, nearly blind, the author has been unable to consult many books which would have afforded him important assistance. The whole was written in pencil, with the aid of an instrument used to guide the hand in writing. Perhaps this seeming loss has added much to the real value of the book. Very certainly the author has drawn copiously, both for quotation and illustration, from those precious wells of salvation, the sacred Scriptures.

583. Home Jewels; or, Maggie Ella Colton and her Brothers. 18mo. pp. 100. Price 15 and 20 cents. 1000 copies.

A touching tale of a mother's joys and sorrows in the gift, lives, and removal of several interesting children.

584. Mary Humphreys; or, Light Shining in a Dark Place. 18mo. pp. 108. Price 15 and 20 cents. 1000 copies.

A sweet story, showing how much good may be accomplished by a young girl of sixteen, of wealthy parents, and with a heart to serve God.

585. Drops of Truth from the Fountain of Wisdom. Compiled for the Board of Publication. By Jeanie. 18mo. pp. 273. Price 30 and 35 cents. 2000 copies.

An excellent collection of short pieces, all interesting, and each conveying some important Scripture lesson.

586. Emily Grey and her Kind Aunt. 18mo. pp. 153. Price 20 and 25 cents. 1000 copies.

Without any striking or attractive narrative, a series of very ordinary and homelike incidents is here most happily employed to exhibit and enforce many important lessons for youth.

587. The Bar of Iron, and the Conclusion of the Matter. A True Story. By the Rev. Charles B. Tayler, A. M., Rector of Otey. 18mo. pp. 147. Price 20 and 25 cents. 1000 copies.

This is a deeply interesting Temperance story, showing by facts the awful consequences of indulgence in habits of intemperance.

509. Letters of John Calvin; Compiled from the Original Manuscripts, and Edited with Historical Notes. By Dr. Jules Bonnet. Volume III. Translated from the original Latin and French, by Marcus Robert Gilchrist. 8vo. pp. 491. Price $1.30. 500 copies.

Dr. Bonnet has with untiring zeal and labour explored the great libraries and other archives of Europe, and has succeeded in collecting a large and extremely interesting part of the correspondence of the great Genevan Reformer. Two volumes of this correspondence were issued in Edinburgh, after which the undertaking was abandoned. Aided by a munificent gentleman of New York, the Board of Publication has now undertaken to publish the collection in four octavo volumes. The first two have been republished from the Edinburgh edition, revised and corrected by its editor. This third volume has never before appeared in print. We know of no better method of getting at the inner life of a man, than through his private correspondence with his bosom friends. Calvin appears no where to greater advantage than in his familiar correspondence. He shows deep-toned, unaffected piety, and great kindness and benevolence to his fellow-men, with an ardent zeal for God's honour and glory. His bitterest enemies will seek in vain in these letters for anything savouring of the malevolence and moroseness falsely charged upon him.

Das grosse Abendmahl, oder eine Beleuchtung und Vertheidigung der Hauptlehren der freien Gnade. The Great Supper. By Rev. Dr. Fairchild. Translated into German by the Rev. F. Steins of New York. Price 15 cents. 2000 copies.

This is pronounced by competent judges to be a faithful translation, written in a pure idiomatic style. It should be widely circulated among our German population.

The Life of President Dwight. 32 pp. 2000 copies.

Another attractive set of children's books, composing Children's Packet, No. 3. Price 12 cents.

In addition to these sixty-one new volumes, the Board has made an arrangement with the Publishers by which it is enabled to furnish the following valuable works, with its own imprint, and on the same terms as its own publications.

The Life and Labours of the Rev. Daniel Baker, D. D., Pastor and Evangelist. Prepared by his son, Rev. William M. Baker, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Austin, Texas. Large 12mo. Pp. 560. Price $1 25.

No man can read the story of the godly life and abounding labours of this eminent man of God without catching somewhat of the noble and earnest aspirations of its subject, or without rising from its perusal a wiser and a better man.

The Martyred Missionaries; a Memorial of the Futtehgurh Mission and her Martyred Missionaries; with some Remarks on the Mutiny in India. By the Rev. J. J. Walsh, sole surviving member of the Futtehgurh Mission of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church. Large 12mo. pp. 338. Price $1 50.

The public are already somewhat familiar with this volume. It rehearses incidents of thrilling interest, and is a fitting memorial of those noble men and women who fell under the murderous hands of the heathen in India. The Church can never let their names die. We doubt not this volume will be used to kindle a brighter missionary zeal and love in many hearts.

Notes, Critical and Explanatory, on the Acts of the Apostles. By the Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D. D., Professor of Biblical Literature and Exegesis in the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny City, Pa. 1 Vol. 8vo. pp. 430. Price $1 00.

This is a copious and popular Commentary on the Acts, embodying the ripest fruits of investigation, in one volume, for all classes of readers. It is furnished with all the helps for the study of this important book. A very valuable feature of it is the "SYNOPSIS OF THE HISTORY," in which an outline of the events is given with suitable captions. These sections appear in the Notes; indicating the substance of the respective paragraphs, and thus guiding the reader to a clear and connected view of the whole. The Illustrations are abundant and superior, with a Map drawn on stone for the work; and the author has incorporated his own notices of travel in the lands of the Bible. The references in the margin are full.

SABBATH-SCHOOL CONTRIBUTION CARDS. Per dozen, net, 25 cents.

CERTIFICATES FOR SABBATH-SCHOOL CONTRIBUTORS TO THE BOARDS. Per dozen, net, 25 cents.

Among the various productions of the year, especial attention is invited to the following.

I. THE LETTERS OF JOHN CALVIN.

The last General Assembly was pleased to notice, with particular approval, the Board's undertaking to issue this large and interesting work. During the past year the third volume has been published. The fourth is not yet ready for the press, but it is hoped that it likewise may be issued within the next twelvemonth.

II. THE GREAT SUPPER, IN GERMAN.

This noble work of Dr. Fairchild has, during the year, been issued in German. Those who are familiar with the structure, education, and religious wants, of the German mind in our country, deem the book eminently suited to be useful in that language.

III. FRENCH BOOKS AND TRACTS.

The good providence of God is opening to this Board a wide and inviting door among the French people in several of our larger cities, and still more among the French Canadian population of the British Provinces. The French Canadian colonists of northern Illinois, connected with the remarkable religious movement in which Mr. Chiniquy has been so instrumental, present likewise a most inviting field for colportage efforts. In view of these opportunities, the Board now has in press, "The Shorter Catechism," "Watts's Scripture Catechism," and "Irons' Letter and Dialogue on Baptism," in the French language. These will soon be followed by other French tracts and books.

IV. CHEAP CONFESSION OF FAITH.

It was announced last year that the Confession of Faith had been published in a 12mo. tract edition of 68 pages, sold at 5 cents per copy, or $4.00 per hundred. That edition had references to the proof texts, but not the texts in full. During the past year the Board has issued another cheap edition in 18mo., of 190 pages, at 10 cents per copy, or $8.00 per hundred, with the texts in full. Thus all varieties of preference can now be met. It is the earnest hope of the Board that these editions may lead to a far wider circulation and more general perusal of this noble standard. It is gratifying to be able to state, that the whole number of Confessions of all editions put in circulation by the Board, now amounts to over 100,000 copies.

V. BOOK OF MINUTES FOR SESSIONS, AND CHURCH REGISTER.

The Board has sought to meet a long existing want among the churches by the publication of these two works. The Minute Book for the use of sessions may be obtained either bound with the "Church Register," or separately. It may also be had of various thicknesses. It contains a printed title-page, and a specimen page, and is paged and ruled throughout.

The "Church Register" will be found invaluable for preserving historical facts and dates in a church's history. It contains, with a variety of appropriate columns in each, six separate departments. 1. A Register for Ruling Elders. 2. For Deacons. 3. For Communicants. 4. For Baptisms. 5. For Marriages. 6. For Deaths. Every church which introduces the use of these two books, will find them greatly conducive to method and precision in the preservation of its records.

FORM FOR SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE.

The Board would report that it has, in compliance with the directions of the Assembly, prepared and published the several kinds of forms referred to in the Minutes of last year, on pages 536–7.

The "Form for Systematic Beneficence" in congregations, was selected from among a variety of forms examined, and is believed to be well adapted to forward the object in view. It has been adopted, and is in use in a considerable number of churches.

CHILDREN'S SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENT SCHEME.

This scheme is very simple in its arrangement. It consists of a card for the use of a Sabbath-school class, which presents on one side directions for taking the subscriptions, and on the other side, a tabular statement of them for the twelve months of a year. It is accompanied by a handsomely embellished certificate, intended to be signed by the pastor or superintendent, and presented to each pupil who has faithfully carried out the plan for the year. This certificate is so drawn up as to inform the recipient respecting the number and objects of the Boards.

This scheme is intended to train the children of the church to do the work of the Lord, in the matter of giving, and to do it in a systematic way. It is an effort to bend the twig aright, in order that the tree may be inclined aright. It is vain to expect the children to have their attention absorbed, and their hearts drawn aside to other objects during their early years, but suddenly loving and coöperating with the Assembly's great schemes, when they take their places in the pew as men and women and heads of families. But let the pupils in all our Sabbath-schools be trained to know, to love, and to coöperate from infancy with the Boards of the Church, and when another generation shall have come upon the stage, we shall see their work moving forward on a vaster scale, and with a mightier impulse, than our present weak faith dares anticipate.

BOOK OF JUVENILE MUSIC.

The resolution referred by the last Assembly to the Board, in relation to a small collection of music suited to young children, has been carefully considered. The best arrangement the Board has as yet been able to make for furnishing such a book, has been to procure from its publisher the right of issuing a little work entitled, "The Sabbath-School Bell," with the imprimatur of the Board. This work is already in use in many Sabbath-schools; it is highly recommended by gentlemen of musical attainments; and it is hoped may, in connection with "The Juvenile Psalmodist," meet the need of our Sabbath-schools, at least until some better book can be procured.

APPENDIX TO THE PSALMODIST.

The Board has likewise considered the other resolution referred to it, in relation to an Appendix containing anthems, and set pieces, to be added to the "Presbyterian Psalmodist." The Appendix will be added as soon as a suitable collection of unquestionable excellence can be obtained. To secure this, the mover of the resolution referred to, and other gentlemen of musical attainments, have been applied to for their aid.

SABBATH-SCHOOL BOOKS.

During the past year the Board has been making constant additions to its Sabbath-school library. A large proportion of the books issued have been of this description. And they will continue to be brought out as fast as is consistent with wisdom and care in the selection, until our Presbyterian Sabbath-schools throughout the land shall be able to furnish their book-shelves wholly from the Board's catalogue. Facts are continually coming to light which show the importance of this course. Nor are we without the most cheering evidences of both the acceptableness and usefulness of these little books. Our Sabbath-school library at present contains 246 volumes, and costs in the plainer binding for cash $38.25.

The Board now furnishes also to Sabbath-schools a variety of commentaries, catechisms, question-books, hymn-books, music, and other Sabbath-school requisites.

An overture to the General Assembly having been presented to the Presbytery of Philadelphia, at its April meeting, and by that body unanimously referred to this Board, which overture had reference to the erection of a distinct department of the Board for Sabbath-schools, the Board, after hearing the overture, decided that it was not at present prepared to make any recommendation on that subject.

THE HOME AND FOREIGN RECORD.

The number of copies of the Home and Foreign Record printed at the close of the year 1858–9 was 17,650. The number printed at the close of the year now under review was 16,400. Notwithstanding repeated recommendations of the General Assembly that it should be generally taken in all our congregations, and notwithstanding also the evident importance of their being well informed in regard to the benevolent operations of their own denomination, it will be seen that its circulation has in the last year decreased. There are many of our churches in which the Record is scarcely taken, and where indeed it is hardly known. It is little to be wondered at, that in such churches there is generally little interest felt in the great enterprises of the Presbyterian Church, and little active coöperation afforded. It is greatly to be regretted that the number of copies taken throughout the Church is not increased many fold. The Record is to be regarded as a most important vehicle for the communication of knowledge respecting the Church's work and progress. A copy of the paper is sent gratuitously to every minister and licentiate of our body, and to every theological student in our Seminaries. And in its influence upon the pecuniary resources alone of the Boards, it far more than compensates for the expense to them attending its publication.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL VISITOR.

The number of subscribers to the Sabbath-school Visitor reported to the last Assembly was 58,000. It continued to increase until the close of the year, when it had reached as high a number as 60,000. This was pleasing evidence of a general and growing appreciation of the paper. Yet there were not a few in different parts of the country, disposed to make unfavourable comparisons between it and the juvenile papers issued by other religious publishing institutions. The fact in regard to nearly all those papers was that they were monthlies, while the Visitor was a semi-monthly. Of course it was possible for them to be made larger, embellished with handsomer engravings, and made in every respect more costly than the Visitor, while yet they were furnished at a lower annual price. Still these comparisons were sufficiently numerous and weighty to create upon the part of the Board a desire to improve the character and appearance of the Visitor. As the Board was already expending upon that paper the entire amount received from its sales, and more, one or other of the following courses must be adopted: 1. To continue it as a semi-monthly, improving it in size and appearance, and fixing its price considerably higher than heretofore. 2. To reduce it to a monthly, improve it in every way possible, and at the same time furnish it at the same price with the other monthlies referred to; or, 3. To continue the paper as heretofore. After a careful examination of the whole subject, the Board decided to adopt the second course. Accordingly, after the first day of May in the present year, the Visitor will appear as a monthly, enlarged and embellished, in a handsomer style, as well as upon more costly paper than heretofore, and with the price largely reduced. It is now furnished at the same price with the monthlies with which it comes chiefly into competition. It will be edited at the Publication Rooms in Philadelphia, without any charge for editorial labour.

It is not without great and sincere reluctance that the Board has abandoned the semi-monthly feature of the Visitor. It is fully awake to the importance of appearing in the Sabbath-schools as often as twice a month. It is well aware, too, that this will cause regret to many of its former readers. It is some relief to know that the "Foreign Missionary," published for Sabbath-schools by our Board of Foreign Missions, may in some good degree take the place of the second monthly number. At all events, while fully aware that it will be impossible, by any means, to please all, the Board is conscious of an earnest desire and effort to do what was best. If in the judgment of the Assembly it has not adopted the best plan, it will give the Board the sincerest pleasure to receive instructions in regard to this increasingly important paper.

II. DEPARTMENT OF DISTRIBUTION.

1. SALES AT THE DEPOSITORY.

At the Depository in Philadelphia the sales of the year have amounted to 241,050 volumes, which is an increase of 16,650 volumes on the sales of last year. The sales of tracts have amounted to 869,405 pages. The net value of the volumes and tracts thus sold was $42,141 49. The Board has likewise sent from its Depository to Theological Seminaries, by order of the General Assembly, to authors and editors, its publications to the additional value of $1,019 77, making the net value of issues from the bookstore $43,161 26. This is, of course, exclusive of sales made through colporteurs, for an account of which see pages 28, 29.

2. DISTRIBUTIONS BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Board has continued, during the past year, to receive from various sources great numbers of applications for grants of books and tracts. To such applications the Executive Committee always responds with the sincerest pleasure, whenever the nature and circumstances of the application, and the state of their Distribution Fund, appear to warrant them in so doing. During the past year the Committee has granted,

To Sabbath-schools, - - - -	3704	volumes,
" Ships, humane and literary institutions,	435	"
" Ministers, - - - -	268	"
" Feeble churches, - - - -	1072	"
" Individuals, for gratuitous distribution,	622	"
Total of volumes granted, - -	6101
Pages of tracts granted, - -	413,222

The amount received during the year for the Distribution Fund has been $1,609 77. The amount expended in making the above grants has been $1,662 60.

The volumes and tracts thus granted have given vitality and efficiency to many a mission Sabbath-school; have carried comfort and essential aid to many a poor pastor or missionary; and have been placed by private Christian effort as drops of rich blessing in contact with many an otherwise inaccessible mind.

We wish earnestly to call the attention of the benevolent to this Distribution Fund. As an annual collection is solicited by the Board, and recommended by the General Assembly, for the Colportage Fund, no second public collection has been asked for this Fund. It is, therefore, wholly dependent on the spontaneous offerings of those who can appreciate its importance as a channel for Christian beneficence. Happily, there have thus far been a few liberal Christian friends who have kept it from being absolutely exhausted for any great length of time. As the solicitations for grants are, however, annually increasing, and as the objects presenting themselves for its aid are in the great majority of cases highly important and deserving, a larger amount will certainly be needful from year to year. We feel confident that they who have money to expend in doing good, can hardly find a better investment for a portion of it than in this Distribution Fund.

We would especially appeal to the Sabbath-schools of our older and richer churches. What more appropriate or more interesting field for their Christian exertions could be afforded than furnishing, through the aid of this Fund, libraries and other Sabbath-school apparatus to the needy and usually poor schools, gathered by domestic missionaries or colporteurs, in the midst ofttimes of ignorance, opposition, and varied difficulty?

3. DISTRIBUTION BY COLPORTAGE.

The Board rejoices in having good tidings to tell respecting this department of its operations. Its confidence in the colportage scheme, as a wise, efficient, economical, and absolutely indispensable part of the church's work in these days, increases with each new year of insight into the importance and value of such labours. So long as the pure and precious truths of God's word are in order to holiness; so long as this vast, expanding, and unspeakably important land is a field in every part for our church's effort; so long, especially, as we are far, very far, from having a ministry numerous enough to take possession for Christ of all its cities, towns, villages, rural districts, valleys, prairies, and frontier settlements; so long is the question of colportage or no colportage, simply the question whether hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of souls, shall receive the message of salvation, or whether they shall perish in ignorance and sin.

Because it is a part of the colporteur's duty to dispose by sale of as many books as possible, he ought not, therefore, to be looked upon as a mere vender of books or book-peddler. Not at all. His chief object is the dissemination of divine truth as a means of saving souls. The commercial aspect of his work is altogether subordinate. So far as he or the Board may receive any pecuniary advantage, it is merely an incidental thing. The whole tenor of the instructions given him at his going out shows, that while he is to sell as many books as he can, he is to regard his undertaking as entirely a missionary work. Hence he is at liberty, where he cannot sell the books, to give them away. So he is carefully instructed never, if possible, to leave a house without giving its inmates at least a few pages of tracts. If any colporteur does not show by his spirit, his conversations, and his prayers, as he goes from house to house, that the love of Christ and of souls has far higher place in his affections than the getting of money, then is it a personal fault and delinquency of the man, and a violation of his instructions, noway chargeable in fairness upon the scheme of colportage. He is sent out with the main design to do good to souls by circulating the truth, and the summary of colportage service contained in this report well shows how large a portion of his time and labours is expended in other parts of the duties assigned him, than in selling books.

The number of colporteurs in commission during the past year has been 202, which is an increase of 59 over the number last year reported. The number is still increasing, and will be enlarged just as fast and as far as the churches will furnish the Board with the means. These colporteurs have performed, during the past year, 18,490 days, or (allowing 313 working days to the year,) 59 years and 23 days of labour. This is an advance of 3,923 days, or of about 12½ years on the labour performed last year, and 585 days in advance of the largest year's colportage work ever performed by the Board.

The number of volumes sold by colporteurs has been 124,638, which is an increase of 32,572 over the number of volumes sold last year, and is 714 volumes in advance of the number sold by colporteurs in any previous year.

The number of volumes given away has been 14,920, which is an increase of 3,736.

The tracts sent out to colporteurs for gratuitous distribution have amounted to 2,162,594 pages, which is 945,021 pages in advance, or nearly double the number of last year. Every colporteur is under explicit instructions to leave at least a few pages of tracts, if possible, in every dwelling he may enter. And many are the instances in which we are assured that these seeds sown by the way-side spring up, through the mercy of God, unto everlasting life.

The number of families visited has been 135,384, an increase of 62,857, or nearly double the number of last year, or 15,699 visits more than have been made in any former year.

It will be seen from these statements, that the colportage work performed for the Board has been in advance of any preceding year. Although it had for two or three years a larger number of colporteurs in commission, the work performed is, in almost every item, considerably in advance of that accomplished in any former year of the Board's history.

The fields occupied by the colporteurs of the Board have lain in thirty-four States, Territories, and British Provinces. In Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and the Canadas, the colporteurs of the Board have been enabled to perform a work declared by many of their intelligent Christian men to have been an inestimable boon to those provinces. In Washington Territory, the Board has had three labourers in commission. It is to be regretted that no report has as yet been received from either of them. In Oregon, the Board has had a faithful and zealous labourer whose report has been received for only a portion of the year. In California, the Board has distributed a considerable number of books and tracts through the agency of friends not commissioned as colporteurs. Arrangements were recently made, as the Board supposed, for a greatly enlarged distribution in that important field, but this arrangement was providentially thwarted. The Board is now seeking to complete another and comprehensive arrangement for this purpose. If successful, we hope to report next year a great advance in this work in California.

In Georgia and Alabama, the judicious and energetic labours of Rev. W. J. Keith, the District Superintendent of Colportage there, have been successful in infusing new activity into the work, and to a considerable extent in awakening an increasing liberality and interest in it among the churches.

In the Northwest the Board has engaged the services of C. O. Waters, M. D., of Muscatine, Iowa, as District

Superintendent of Colportage for the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, and Missouri. The general failure of the crops last summer, and distressing financial embarrassments so prevalent in this vast and important region have much obstructed the colportage work there. Still much has been accomplished, and we have every reason to expect under the arrangements now made, that much more will be done during the next year.

In Kentucky and Tennessee, although they are rich and populous states, comparatively little has hitherto been done for the colportage work of the Board. At the instance of a number of clergymen of Louisville and its vicinity, the Rev. Moses G. Knight has lately received from the Board the appointment of District Superintendent of Colportage for those two States, and has just entered upon the work with much zeal and excellent promise of success.

The Synods of Pittsburgh and Allegheny have a local Board of Colportage under their own control and management. The Synod of Mississippi likewise has certain arrangements of its own, in connection with its Depository in New Orleans, for the distribution of the books of the Board within its bounds. We have received no information from either of these Synods as to what has been done for colportage through their local agencies this year. The Board regards it as exceedingly desirable that these Synods should make to the Assembly, through this Board an annual statement, so that the church may have a full and fair exhibit of all that is done for colportage throughout our entire church.

The spiritual results of the year's work have been encouraging. They show that the Spirit of God has accompanied and blessed his own truth. Some of these colporteurs have laboured in the midst of revivals which they believe to have been deepened and extended by means of the truth they scattered. Others report pleasing instances in which particular books and tracts have been made God's instruments in awakening and converting souls.

Nevertheless, while we rejoice in all these signs of blessing, we believe it were equally a duty to disseminate these books and tracts were no such signs vouchsafed. We believe that these books and tracts contain the eternal truths of God's own word. Hence we feel that it is the privilege and the duty of the church to cherish this colportage scheme which sows them broadcast over the land.

The tabular statement prepared by Mr. Winthrop Sargent, Superintendent of Colportage, and found in the Appendix, will exhibit the work of the year in its details.

TOTAL OF DISTRIBUTION.

We are now prepared to sum up the several items, and we find the total of distribution this year is as follows:

Sales of volumes at the Depository, - - -	241,050
Sales of volumes by Colporteurs, - - -	124,638
Given by Colporteurs, - - - - -	14,920
Granted by the Executive Committee, - -	6,101
Total of volumes distributed,	386,709

which is an increase of 54,712 volumes on the distribution of the previous year.

The distribution of pages of tracts has been as follows:

Sales at the Depository, - - - -	869,405
Distributed by Colporteurs, - - - -	2,162,594
Granted by the Executive Committee, - -	413,222
Total pages of tracts distributed,	3,445,221

being an increase of 389,770 pages in the distribution over the year before.

In addition to the above, the Board has issued about an average number of 17,000 copies monthly of the Home and Foreign Record, and 59,000 copies semi-monthly of the Sabbath-School Visitor, as well as a variety of other pamphlets and papers.

The net value of these issues of the year is as follows:

Sales in the Depository, - - - - -	$42,141.49
Sent to Seminaries, Authors, and Editors, -	1,019.77
Sales by Colportage, - - - - - -	47,517.72
Home and Foreign Record, - - -	5,427.12
Sabbath-school Visitor, - - - - -	7,221,69
Total,	*103,327.79

As the above total comprehends large amounts representing donations and credit sales, it does not of course appear in the Treasurer's account, which presents only the amounts of cash received and paid out. But it exhibits approximately a fair view in money value of the business transactions of the Board. It may here be properly remarked that colportage operations, as they require not only the ordinary labours and calculations of bookstore sales, such as selecting, invoicing and packing the books sent out, but likewise a large amount of labour in re-invoicing, deducting value, and re-arranging books left unsold and sent back by colporteurs, also require a far larger expenditure of labour and of clerks' and book-keepers' time, than do ordinary bookstore sales.

III. DEPARTMENT OF SUSTENTATION.

THE TREASURER'S REPORT.

The aggregate of receipts into the Treasury from all sources, excluding, of course, the balance on hand at the beginning of the year, has been $125,394.45, which is an increase of $15,854.74 over the receipts of last year.

* The Catalogue value of the above aggregate of the year's distributions is over $123,000; the difference being made up of discounts allowed to clergymen, theological students, Sabbath-schools, booksellers, Synodical depositories, &c.

The aggregate of expenditures has been $126,033.04 which is an increase of $18,472.02 over those of last year.

The amount of cash received from sales of books, tracts, and periodicals has been $93,581.72, which is an increase of $11,620.27 over the cash received last year from these sources, and is the largest amount the Board has ever received from these sources in any one year.

The balance in the Treasury at the close of the year is $21,498.70. This balance has accrued from the large receipts of the last month or six weeks of the year. Only two or three months before the end of the year, the Treasury was barely able to pay the monthly drafts upon it. Nor is the balance above reported more than enough to pay for publishing the books and tracts actually approved by the Publishing Committee, and those in course of publication.

THE COLPORTAGE FUND.

Notwithstanding the frequency with which one point has been urged on the attention of the church, and that in a variety of ways, we find it so often and so surprisingly overlooked that we feel compelled to advert to it once more. That point is the relation existing between the Publishing and the Colportage departments. Although both are under the management of the Board of Publication, yet are these two departments in nearly every respect as distinct, as if each were in the hands of a separate Board. Their plans, their books of account, their modes of operation, are altogether different. The Publishing Department is a commercial concern, based upon general commercial principles. It solicits no contributions from the churches; it is sustained exclusively by its own profits. But the Colportage

Department is a purely benevolent and missionary enterprise, and is dependent from year to year for its very life and existence, for its whole growth and progress, upon the contributions of the churches, and of benevolent individuals. It procures its supplies of books and tracts from the Publishing Department, and pays for them as a regular customer. The expansion or contraction, the prosperity or reverses of the Publishing Department, have no effect on it whatever. The Colportage Department can do just so much as the churches give the Colportage Fund the means for accomplishing, and no more.

The whole amount received for colportage during the year has been $27,758.39, which is larger by $2,941.39 than the amount received last year. The expenditures for colportage were $27,728.64, a sum lacking $29.75 of being equal to the receipts.

The balance against the Colportage Fund, on the Treasurer's books, which last year was $3300.76, now stands at $3271.01.

The number of churches contributing to the Colportage Fund this year it is not possible to ascertain exactly, owing to the fact that several Presbyteries in distant parts of the country have remitted through their Treasurers the aggregated sums from those Presbyteries, without specifying the names or numbers of the churches contributing. It is believed, however, that, making a due allowance for these, the number of churches this year contributing to the Colportage Fund (irrespective, of course, of those churches in the Synods of Pittsburgh, Allegheny, and Mississippi, which have contributed to their Synodical Boards,) is in the neighbourhood of seven hundred. The number which has contributed this year is a little larger than that which did so last year. But it is greatly to be lamented that while the field for colportage labours is so wide and so white, so many churches, and some among our abler ones, give no pecuniary aid to the Board, towards carrying forward this noble and blessed work. Could each of the non-contributing churches be induced to send even a moderate contribution, a large number of colporteurs might at once be added to the present force, and tens of thousands of volumes be next year put in circulation, over every portion of this broad land.

The summary of colportage service contained in this Report very strikingly exhibits the cheapness of this agency for diffusing divine truth among the needy and the destitute. From this summary it appears that the average salaries of the Board's colporteurs has been $255 per annum, or 81½ cents per day. Surely nothing else than a love for Christ's kingdom, and for perishing souls, could, in ordinary cases, lead men to endure such labours for a compensation so far below that of the ordinary mechanic. It also appears that the entire cost of its colporteurs to the church, including all travelling expenses, freights, cost of books and tracts given away, office expenses in Philadelphia, and everything else connected with the work is, on the average, $470 per annum, or about $1.50 per day. Or, if we prefer to look at the cost per visit, we find it to be, for the colporteur's salary 11¼ cents per visit, or including all office expenses, freight, travelling expenses, salary, and cost of books and tracts given away, about 20½ cents per visit. Now, when we remember that however many of these visits are made in towns, and villages, and populous neighbourhoods, yet a very large proportion of them are also made to secluded hamlets, scattered farm-houses, and remote log cabins, over weary miles of prairie, or through almost trackless wildernesses, sometimes over roads almost impassable by reason of deep mud or unbridged streams; the cost of sending thus the colporteurs at 20½ cents per visit to these tens of thousands of habitations, to talk of Christ and heaven, and pray for a divine blessing on the family, and leave behind volumes and tracts, which may be as bread from heaven to the famishing—cannot seem too great, either for the labour performed, or for the good likely to be accomplished.

STATEMENT OF RECEIPTS

FOR THE

COLPORTAGE FUND.

From March 1, 1859, to March 1, 1860.

The work of publishing Books and Tracts is carried forward upon a capital contributed, several years ago, for that specific purpose, to which it is wholly and sacredly devoted. The churches are called on to contribute nothing for the publishing department of the Board; but as nothing can be drawn away from the publishing department for other uses, the Board is obliged to depend wholly on the contributions of the churches and benevolent individuals for the supply of its Colportage Fund. These contributions, therefore, are indispensable for the following uses, viz.

1. To pay the Salaries and Expenses incident to Colportage.
2. To pay for the large amount of Books and Tracts gratuitously distributed by colporteurs.

Just in proportion, and only in proportion, as the Churches annually contribute to this Fund, is the Board able to do these things.

The following table will exhibit the receipts of the last year.
